

F.A.S.T.R.
CHARACTERIZATION

WHAT DOES F.A.S.T.R. MEAN?

Feelings

Actions

Sayings (dialogue)

Thoughts

Relationships

hmmm...

WHAT DOES CHARACTERIZATION MEAN?

Characterization is when an author shows a character's personality by how the character looks, acts, talks, and interacts with other characters.

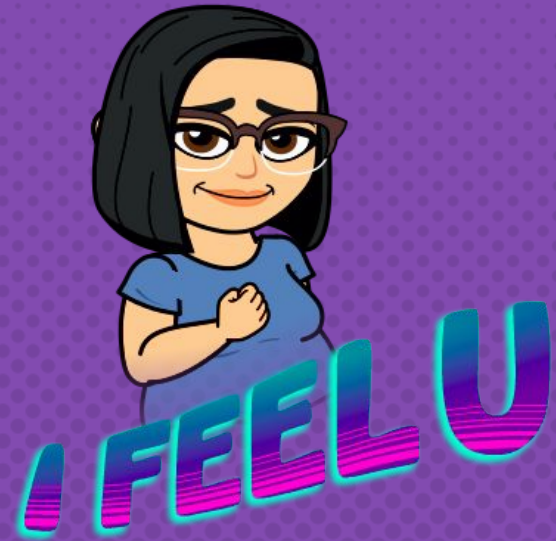

Remember what character traits are?

- Active
- Brave
- Patient
- Responsible
- Trustworthy

FEELINGS

TEXT EVIDENCE

Lines from the story

Cite 2-3 pieces of evidence from the text that show important character traits expressed through what he/she feels.

ACTIONS

TEXT EVIDENCE

Lines from the story

Cite 2-3 pieces of evidence from the text that show important character traits expressed through what he/she does.

SAYINGS

TEXT EVIDENCE

Lines from the story

Cite 2-3 pieces of evidence from the text that show important character traits expressed through what he/she says (dialogue).

THOUGHTS

TEXT EVIDENCE

Lines from the story

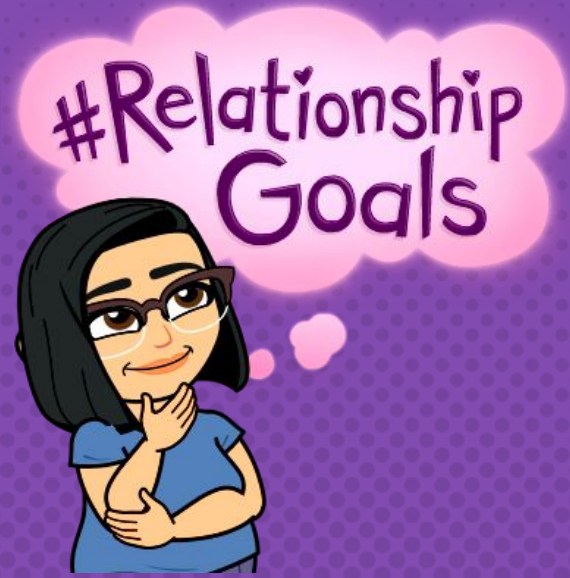

Cite 2-3 pieces of evidence from the text that show important character traits expressed through what he/she thinks.

RELATIONSHIPS

TEXT EVIDENCE

Lines from the story

Cite 2-3 pieces of evidence from the text that show important character traits expressed through how he/she relates to other characters in the story.

Include analysis questions:

What is the purpose of the story?

The point of view used in the story enables the reader to...

The main problem presented in the story is...

